Published Every Morning in the Year by THE WASHINGTON HERALD COMPANY.

Publication Office:

734 FIFTEENTH STREET NORTHWEST. Entered as second-class matter, October 5, 1908, at the post-office at Washington, D. C., under act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

SCOTT C. BONE, Editor,

Telephone Maine 3300. (Private Branch Exchange,

Subscription Hates by Carrier or Mail.50 cents per month ...$6.00 per year the editor will be printed except over the Manuscripts offered for publication will be returned if unavailable, but stamps mications intended for this newspaper, whether for the daily or the should be addressed to

Now York Recognitative SMITH.WILBERDING SPECIAL AGENCY, Tribune Building.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 22, 1908.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

That vacation of yours will be incomplete unless The Washington Herald follows you. It will be like a daily letter from home Wherever you are, it will reach you regularly, and the address will be changed as often as de-each case the length of time you desire paper sent to new address. Daily, 40 cents a month; daily and Sundya, 50 cents. Postage prepaid.

Telephone Main 3300.

A New Bryan Recruit.

The New York World, after conduct- Roosevelt has fastened upon the miliing a virulent campaign against the tary establishment. nomination of Mr. Bryan, on grounds of principle and expediency, has with rather bad grace determined to give the Nebraskan a qualified support, and to extend to the Democratic party, under his leadership, such aid and sympathy as it may without self-stuitification offer. The Says an editorial item in the Knoxville Mr. Bryan, for his part, will adhere to his "admirable speech of acceptance" and Perhaps this is true, but what of it? room every night.

other Democratic paper, or any Democrat, support Mr. Bryan and the party headed, red-blooded, liberty-loving, and bition towns. which has again chosen Mr. Bryan as common-sense American who would have find it much more comfortable, during Baseball, we think, may be called the the present political conflict, to empha- American people's safety valve. At the size its agreements, instead of its differ- games we give ourselves over to our feelences, with the Democratic nominee. It ings, and enjoy ourselves frankly and will be more consistent to go half way vociferously, to our hearts' content. We with Bryan than to part company with throw a large measure of our dignity him wholly; to support the candidate aside, and we proceed to offer emphatic who embodies some of the principles you vocal advice, often highly disrespectful profess, rather than to oppose him be- and couched in anything but elegant lanrelatively unimportant matters. Com- umpfre, to one another, and to nobody in promises of this sort must frequently be particular, as the spirit moves us at the they afford, in many cases, the only practicable method of attaining some desired closure, and we should soon part comobject. And it ought to be obvious to pany with them if we did. We just bethe only practicable way of attaining the time being, and, the truth must be conends of his party, as matters now stand, fessed, we do "cut up scand'lous," as a is to support, and elect, if possible, the rule! candidate of his party.

any vitality left in Democratic principles, is cheap at any price! if there is any ground of appeal for Democratic policies, certainly Mr. Bryan sums up in his personality the vital things, the attack on the Republican party," says matters as to which appeal may be most to evade the eagle eye of the Michigan confidently made to his countrymen for man, he should carefully wrap his next support. Well grounded in the lasting, attack in an army blanket. as opposed to the evanescent, ideas of the Democratic party, he has applied these to the conditions of to-day, and so made Postmaster General George v. L. Meyer of his party a living organism, respon- believes there is no doubt that at the sive to the needs of the time, with a con- coming session of Congress a bill will structive programme of its own. To be passed authorizing the establishthe ordinary political observer, it would ment of postal savings banks, and he reseem that if Democracy means anything calls that such a bill was favorably reand is worth anything, its meaning and ported to the Senate at the last session. worth will be brought out most effectu- In the current issue of the North Amerally by the election of Bryan. Upon the ican Review he gives his arguments in extent to which this theory is accepted favor of such a bill, and points out that by formerly disaffected Democrats, Mr. both the Republican and Democratic plat-Bryan must largely depend for success. forms contain declarations in its favor.

lotte Walker is to the effect that she to the wage earner; they will be benewould not dream of marrying her thousands of admirers in Marvelous Manhat- ficial both to capital and labor, and will tan," says the Housion Post. Aside from do much toward the preventing of hoardher probable disinclination to corner the ing of money throughout the country. man market, even if she could, we The subject is one that has been agitated suspect Miss Walker has a wholesome since 1871; but Mr. Meyer points out that sale annexation of admirers.

liberal tip on the ground that he did postal banks would have done much tonot need the money," says the Chicago ward averting the financial stringency. Record-Herald. If that man ever takes One of the main arguments used against it into his head to murder somebody, he the establishment of postal banks has will require the services of no alienist to been that they will trench on the ground establish his mental irresponsibility.

papers as "a most unique affair." There banks, to disprove this. He thinks, in-tion among rioters in this country of late other savings institutions, and he says: in the matter of originality and versatillty.

get yanked off the earth somewhere along bank, where he could obtain much larger returns

The End of the Army Rides.

..... $4.80 per year the allotted period of three days imposed strengthening that institution and the community." No attention will be paid to anonymous should be sent with the manuscript for at a time when their usefulness was not ting away of small sums in the postal Chicago Representative, CHARLES A. BARNARD. Department, that this is beneficial. As a larger stake in the country. Mr. Meyer have attended to their work without appearing periodically in the limelight by being interviewed in the newspapers and being interviewed in the newspapers and attending the President on his various something new in the way of lynching excursions. These are the officers who precedent. gain no glory with the public, and probably receive no credit from the President. They are the officers who are attending to business without indulging in spectacular feats, gymnastic or vocal, It must come as a relief to such officers "sudden" military administration is ap- we suspect-like Count Boni, for instance, proaching its end. Whoever may be the

> Snubbing Senator Foraker may be good politics and great fun-we don't know, and are not the doctors, anyhow-but we

Work and Play.

Does it prove anything worth while; does cause he differs with you on some of the guage, to our friends, the players, to the made in political as in business life, and moment. We never carry our business any Democrat amenable to reason that come a lot of youngsters again for the

We are all the better off for all that, Some such argument as this long ago however! It relaxes us, and relieves the brought over the veteran editor of the high tension at which we Americans or-Louisville Courier-Journal to the support dinarily travel. The mere fact that a lot of Bryan, and it is an argument that will of energy is used up in providing the operate, we think, with increasing force supply of baseball we demand cuts no as the campaign proceeds. If there is figure in the matter at all. Our baseball

"Mr. Bryan's speech is a thinly veiled

Postal Savings Banks.

The Postmaster General is of the opin-"Private information from Miss Char- ion that such banks will be of great value respect for the law prohibiting the whole- the peculiar desirability of such institutions was not emphasized until last au-"A New York waiter has refused a tumn, when the money received through now occupied by the commercial and the A recent riot precipitated at a railway savings banks; but Mr. Meyer points to station in Atlanta by some soldiers a few the experiences of Great Britain, France. days ago is described in one of the news- and Holland, which have long had postal eems to be quite a good deal of competi- deed, that the postal banks will aid the

"Any depositor who at present has dealings with would not take his deposit away and thereby re "Hitch your wagon to a star," is the duce his income one half by placing it in the postbaby, the American Star. That is all bank had accumulated $30 or $300, he would, in all right, we suppose, even though you may probability, withdraw it and place it in a savings the inevitable tendency must be to keep all the available money of the country in active circulation in the localities where it is brought to the post Mr. Roosevelt has five or six months office. Millions of dellars are withdrawn from be in which to issue orders which will be . . . In time of nervous fright it would be a hene of concern to the military personnel, the fit to banking institutions should the depositor place commissioned members of which have it with the postal bank instead of withdrawing by the President as a revised require- It is hard to see what serious objection ment to demonstrate the efficiency of there can be to postal savings banks. commissioned officers of the army. If Any agency that induces to thrift must this ride was useful in any other way be for the betterment of the country; and than retiring officers permaturely, and the man who first saves through the putimpaired, it has been to again show the banks will soon acquire a habit that will utter futility of this exaction. Army officers have been put to the trouble of re- banks, where his thrifty savings will earn hearsing for the rides on the theory en- a larger interest, and then to the larger tertained by the President, and shared bank, where his accumulations will make by some of his admirers in the War him a better citizen and one with a matter of fact, there are many officers believes that, with the establishment of who are on duty in bureaus, and who postal banks, there would be saved anare of the despised swivel-chair class, nually some $500,000,000, and this money who have not had the time to take the would be in circulation doing the work preliminary rides, and some of them of the nation. We have great hope that had even failed to take, or failed in tak- Mr. Meyer is not too optimistic over the ing, the supreme test. They have been oc- outlook for the establishment of postal cupled with their legitimate duties, and banks. His arguments sound irresistible

One of the negroes lynched at Spring-

"Oh, I shall win that cup eventually, says Sir Thomas Lipton. No Doubting Thomas, this!

"Controlling anything nowadays is pretty hard work," says Mr. George Gould. that the high-strung and altogether Almost as hard as controlling nothing.

The summer resorts serve a great purinheritor of Mr. Roosevelt's policies, it pose in this world. They make people so is probable he will be able to break away thoroughly satisfied with home for elevenfrom some of the absurdities which Mr. twelfths of the year.

> "Why not class Count Okuma as the Hobson of Japan, and let it go at that?" asks the Concord Monitor. Because the ount may be a fighting man, and unwilling to stand for it.

New York's latest drink is known as he "aviator." We presume it is affected Boom in Settlement Along the Paby the high flyers mostly.

Why should not the World or any it indicate anything awry in our civilizaties of the Savannah News, with an innocent air had only 2,533 inhabitants. Ten years appeal in the country, to which Mr. possible of cultivation only in near-probi- later the census showed the presence of Taft's address yesterday on The law's which has again chosen Mr. Bryan as its standard-bearer? In this campaign, at any rate, the Democratic candidate and platform represent principles and is suggested and policies for which the World.

Wholesome recreation is quite as essentiate case, but on the length of cases, but on the length of cases, however, this method has come to the case, but on the length of cases, however, this method has come to the case, but on the length of cases, however, this method has come to the case, but on the length of cases, however, this method has come to the case, but on the length of cases, however, this method has come to the case, but on the length of cases, however, this method has come to the case, but on the length of cases, however, this method has come to the case, but on the length of cases, however, this method has come to the case, but on the length of cases, however, this method has come to the case, but on the length of cases, however, this method has come to the case, but on the length of cases, however, this method has come to the case, but on the length of cases, however, this method has come to the case, but on the length of the case, but on the length of cases, however, this method has come to the case, but on the length of cases, however, this method has come to the case, but on the length of the case,

VOL. 11. NO. 13.

EVERY SATURDAY.

申れ置候々生地な

明候々候交もの方も

治間々何に大物にも

四左人は全分と於の

十様を市然有をけを

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

LINES OF MANUFACTURE.

Sits and listens, does the dove To a fellow making love. Is this making love, you know,

Tis entrancing, we confess But she doesn't whisper yes, For the sunny Damsel in the summer gown

Where they're dancing.

Has a sweetheart up in town Making money.

Modern Methods. "I got a postal from a candidate today." said the first farmer.

"To what effect?" inquired the second "Asked me to consider myself slapped on the back and my baby kissed. Seems he's conducting a card-index campaign. Would Be Helpful.

"My boy, although poor, you can be the architect of your own career. "Still, I wish I had a wealthy father to finance the plans and specifications I

Those Rosente Predictions.

"Is a prophet always without honor in his own country?" "A class prophet usually is," responded the college graduate who was manipulating the controller of a trolley car.

> Our coin expended, We catch the train at dawn. Vacation's ended. Unlike the Drama.

Back to the Grind.

Our fatted bank roll gone,

"Life ain't like the plays." "How now?" When I go calling, no housemaid ever tells me the family history whilst mak-

She Lost Out.

"I'd rather waltz than eat," confided the summer girl. "Then we'll just have another dance

instead of going to that fashionable restaurant," responded the thrifty swain. "And," he added mentally, "that's $6

Canned Oratory.

"No need for that pitcher of ice water." Why not: "The speech to-night is to be delivered by a graphophone.

GREAT SEATTLE.

machine oil."

Seattle is a marvel of rapid development and four years of litigation." 42.887, and in 1900 these figures were aldelay was largely devoted, is that it From the Photo Era Magazine "Genuine Florida crackers are made in 80,671 inhabitants. The estimated popula- versy between a poor man and a rich

THE BIG STICK

WASHINGTON, AUGUST 22, 1908.

POLITICAL ACTIVITY. OUR SPECIAL PALMIST BY YE LOCAL SCRIBE.

The Hand of Mr. George R. Shel-

Cur Motto: If you see it in The Big Stick, it isn't necessarily so.

THE YELLOW PERIL.

It is well, indeed, that our fleet is nearing Asintle wraters, and it is to be hoped that the fossing and hospitality at Sydney and other Australian ports will not be overeform. The American powers has evidentity gone too far in its ridicule of Firecater Hobson, for there can no longer be any doubt that the press of Japun has determined to repudiate in the severest manner the New York Herald's proposition for the Chinese-Printed States alliance.

Even if the proposed alliance is distanted to Japan, we maintain that the matter is one that could have been settled by calm discussion, and it is therefore with sorrow and shame, rather than trapidation, that we read the following utterance from our Tokyo conducting posts.

Hard Tokyo At 1807.

Hard Tokyo At 1807.

Hard Tokyo At 1807.

EVERDAY—Mr. Hitchcock goes from our Tokyo conducting posts.

Hard Tokyo At 1807.

Hard Tokyo At 1

FEIDAY-Mr. Hitchcock awakes

FRIDAY-Mr. Hitchcock awakes in Boston and at once goes into conference with promisent Regulations, at the same time that his personal staff travels to Maine. Late that evening Mr. Hitchcock receives telegram signed "Oulahan." It reads, "I am conferring." SATURDAY-As we went to press Mr. Hitchcock was hurrying to a conference with Mr. George R. Sheldon as to the matter of campaign funds.

POLITICAL COMMENT.

The Boston Traveller evidently does not think much of the speech of acceptance of Vice Presidential Candidate Sherman. It points out the insincerity, and says:

The hypocritical and insincere speech of acceptance of Vice Presidential Candidate Sherman is of itself sufficient to defeat the Presidential ticket. The only claim of Taft and Sherman for the vote of the people is that they will carry forbers of his party in Congress.

sincerity which justly appeal to the electreputation for veracity? cliques, and wheels within wheels which characterize Republican control by corporations, and his party deserves to be take notice of the unexpected strength administration. to the Republicans, together with practi-cally all the territory east of the Ohio and north of the Potomac; now there are several States there. more than a fighting chance, and the Reing passes at the furniture with a feather publicans are showing distinct anxiety about New York.

> The Pittsburg Post says that the Re- From the Norfolk Virginian-Pilot, publicans cannot successfully avoid Mr.

fority, the masses of the common people, "light." assert themselves over the privileged mi-on Mr. Taft's Virginia speech:

most doubled, the enumeration revealing often makes the decision of a contro-

SOMEWHERE IN THE WOODS,

card of membership No. 30 in Lodge 23 of the Induitive Splitters'

FOR SALE-MISCELLANEOUS.

WRIGHT WILL BE GOOD. New Secretary of War's Silence Is Impressive.

From the Louisville Courier-Journal. Aim to be good, seek not to be great, a Cabinet officer's noblest station is reof War. Tackled by newspaper men as of Cleveland, last evening, at the Arling be was departing for Oyster Bay, Secre- ton. tary Wright positively declined to do "Mr. Foraker is looked upon by Repubany further talking about the hazing licans as a stick of dynamite, and they cases. He would not say whether the are looking for an explosion at any moman, with Congressmen Dalzell and cadets would or wouldn't, should or ment. Notwithstanding this, they insist shouldn't, be dismissed. He would not on jarring what they consider dynamite, non, were able during the last session of say "yes" or "no" to any question put by I do not think any fair-minded man can Congress to defeat alreast every measure inquisitive space fighters. Gen. Wright's criticise Mr. Foraker for his attitude tothat Roosevelt demanded from the mem- silence was impressive and expressive. It ward the campaign managers. ers of his party in Congress. was eloquent. What does it profit a "They not only relegated him and Sena-tor Dick to back seats on the platform at eaten in this campaign, if for nothing vantage in repartee is with the court," both Senators, else than putting him in a position where and sat down rebuked, mulct, and siin the event of Taft's election and death, lenced. Evidently the Secretary of War long enough to know what are trumps, recognized the fact that the advantage and there are few men in this country "The man who for twelve years has been collecting tariff campaign contributions from the protected monopolies, and contributions from the protected monopolies and contributions from the protected monopolies and contributions from the protected monopolies and contributions from the now glibly yearns for tariff revision. a candidate for President, and elects who consider principle secondary are not and Mr. Loeb being qualified to vote. The Richmond Journal says: "The New Secretary Wright is quite right. He was stronger mind than the Republican party York papers are beginning to 'sit up and not appointed to do the talking for the can command at this time to convince take notice,' of the unexpected strength administration. That function is distake notice of the unexpected strength Bryan is developing in that State. The wise and judicious conservatism that he has displayed since his nomination is a topic of conversation. His not to talk "Senator Forzker is a stanch friend of ments that were least counted upon. The merit by sitting tightly upon the lid, but Mr. Foraker will go into Indiana and

ART OF LIGHTING.

Did Roosevelt Tell Taft How to Come to Ground?

One of the earliest stories of Uncle Re-Bryan's slogan, "Shall the people rule." mus was about the time when Br'er Tarrapin wanted to learn how to fly, and House last night. "It is a cheap show of mock indigna- asked Br'er Buzzard to teach him. The orderly houses have caused the trouble tion which would imply from Bryan's bird consented, took the highland creeper question, shall the people rule, that they on his back, spread his wings, and sourced which now makes the city cower bedo not now exercise this right merely be-cause they are venal. They have been tricked out of power by methods of which Cannon, Daizell, and Sherman are pastmasters in, and which training in the the clouds kerplunk to native earth again, the polls to vote for municipal sophistry that deludes the whole country nighly splitting his shell in two. And "When we see such a state of affairs at into taxing liself by a protective tariff when he got his breath again Br'er Tar- the home of Abraham Lincoln, what can into making trusts and combines pro- rapin began to grumble. "Br'er Buzzard we expect will soon occur in the settled motes. The fear of the Republican party teach me how to fly all right." he said. cities where the foreign element predominates?

The moral in this tale might be studied to advantage by a certain denizen of ling about the subordination of the masses earth who has lately profited by the aid The New York Mail comments thus of a high-flyer to essay a flight in the upper air. Temporarily Brier Taft is "With Tammany lined up behind him "There is nothing," as Mr. Taft well very grateful to Br'er Roosevelt for the this year, and 'Isms' stored away for the World agrees to overlook what it terms

Mr. Bryan's "past follies" and the "delusive issues" he has imposed on the Democratic party in former campaigns, if
Mr. Bryan, for his part, will adhere to

Mr. Bryan, for his part, will adhere to the Great Lakes sprang into existence. resort, which generally means two, three, reminded then of Br'er Tarrapin and his the Raleigh last evening. experience. And will be berate Br'er "Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tam-"What is 'white lightning?' inquires in population and business. In 1880 it "The prevailing abuse of the power of Roosevelt for faffing to give him also a many Hall, declares Democracy is going Portrait-Photography.

Among the means adopted by many Suce and policies for which the World and its Democratic constituency have been contending many years.

On the marketing of produce, or earlier "packages" in Jackson of the pursues of the two litigants. The man has the cultivation of crops, the marketing of produce, or earlier and produce, or earlier "packages" in Jackson of the pursues of the two litigants. The man has the cultivation of crops, the marketing of produce, or earlier and produce and the pursues of the two litigants. The man has the produce are confortable, during the produce, or earlier and produce, or earlier and produce, or earlier and produce, or earlier and produce and produce

Phrasing a Sentiment. From the Boston Hereld

Secretary Root, in his letter to the son finish. students from the Argentine Republic gether, to which enterprise of his we have House, who was seen last night at the recently, and more than once referred. Willard. of broad, unprejudiced, and sympathetic line carried out, and will give him all humanity." The internationalism of the the support they can. scholastic world, the lack of all barriers "The hard times of the past were felt of race, creed, or nationality in the search by the lumber industry in Texas less than gauged statesmen now reckon."

· If Bryan Were.

From the Hartford Courant, Let us suppose that Mr. Bryan were elected President of the United States, and that it thereby became his duty to a collector, at the Raleigh last night. name new justices for this great court, a collector, at the Raleigh last night. and let us suppose that Senator La Follette still lived and remained in political accord with the new President. Mr. La Follette was admitted to the Wisconsin bar in 1880, and he has been practicing bar in 1880, and he has been practicing announced the rumor was false the stamp announced the rumor was false the stamp dealers were swamped with packages improbable in these imaginary conditions dene up in every concelvable form." and work for their common ideas in that olling tribunal? The point is worth From the Fall River News. reflecting about at any rate.

Must Help the Doubtful,

From the Florida Times-Union. Chairman Hitchcock says those States of Rochester, Ind. He made an address certainly Republican must help the cause on "Birds, Bees, and Bryan," the other with the doubtful brethren. If Treasurer night, giving most of his time to Bryan. Sheldon has $3,000,000 in his chest, what Republican State will feel certain of herself to the extent of giving money when she hoped to receive it? Is it not subversive of zeal to deny the faithful and broken leg in splints he has gone over reward the wavering?

THE TWO FRIENDS.

could not be.

And every night when midnight tolls they meet to in Spain.

The record drowned near Alicante-while I alive to kill themselves, it looks as though more enjoyable methods of living was through the night, And grieve to see them fade away in early morning

The first with gnomes in the under land is leading It appears to be only a question of time

And since I have friends in the earth and sea-with his coat.

a few. I trust, on high—

Tis a matter of small account to me the way I

AT THE HOTELS.

"Whatever Senator Foraker may do in the Presidential campaign, one thing is certain he will do everything in his power treat, is now the maxim of the Secretary through in Indiana," said Alien C. Davis,

"They not only relegated him and Senathe coming convention in Youngstown, rate, but Sherman epitomizes the rings, The late Theodore Hallam, of the Ken- but failed to include either of them

> Club with as great ease as he nominates for principle. Naturally enough, those a candidate for President, and elects > him by acclamation, none but bimself his best friends. Mr. Foraker knows > and Mr. Loch being qualified to vote.
>
> what he is about, and it will take a having its effect even in New York, and of why, his but to do or die.

Senator Forager is a stanch friend of Senator Hemenway and 'Jim' Watson.

The Secretary of War may acquire The latter is a candidate for governor, and "Loose municipal government and the prevalence of low dives and saloons are responsible for all such outbreaks similar to the one in Springfield, ill., which have disgraced the country," said Wilson B. Washburn, of Chicago, at the Ebbitt to win this year.' Added to this, we have assyrances from Richard Croker, erstwhile Tammany boss, that Bryan is a safer, saner, and more conservative man plain sailing, no matter who is named by the Democrats. If Democracy is ma-terially benefited by Bryan's name on the strongest man, and try to make a Garrinew at Cornell University, happily Texans are in hearty accord with Presphrases a sentiment which is controlling ident Roosevelt's idea of conserving the him in his efforts to bring the scientists natural resources, according to Georga and "experts" of the two continents to- H. Teague, of the Southwest Publishing

He says that, as entering the harbor of "Notwithstanding there are enough Buenos Ayres he was met by a craft trees in Texas to supply the world with laden with Argentine and American stu-dents, he then reflected "that there is "we believe the President's idea of exbut one republic of learning, and that all ercising care is a good one, and we are those who follow her path, in whatever with him. Texans are anxious to see land, tend toward the meeting ground all of Mr. Roosevelt's ideas along this for truth which scientists and university in any business in the State, and probably men pursue, are factors in affairs of less than in any section of the country. to-day, with which all broad-l statesmen now reckon." Some of the sawmills were shut down for a time, but they are all running at full capacity to-day, and turning out about 100,000 feet of lumber a day

"Stamp collectors take much interest in "That rumer has done much to aid us

Birds, Bees, and Bryan,

That "nature faker" affair of Mr. Roosevelt's has lost one vote for the Republican party, at any rate. One of the Rev. Dr. Long's admirers is Isaac W. Brown, to the hopeless minority.

Much Too Long.

From the New London Day. I have two friends-two glorious friends-two better | Wu Ting-fang thinks he has a plan by which a man can prolong his life to 200 years. In view of the number of persons who find an ordinary stretch of ex-The first was shot by Carlist thieres ten years ago istence too long for them and are glad what was needed rather than a greater

I love to see their dim white forms come floating number of years.

From the Hartford Times. The second has married a mermaiden-a beautiful when somebody accepts President Cas-tro's invitation to knock the chip off his shoulder and also to tread on the tail of

Some Fun Promised,

For whether I sink in the feaming flood, or swing "Roosevelt will fight for Taft tooth and on the triple tree.

Or die in my bed, as a Christian should, is all the same to me.

From the Louisville Courier-Journal.

Charles Godfrey Leland. is equal to his dental display.